FAQ

How can I join the community forum?

To join the community forum, simply sign up for an Edream account and navigate to the 'Community' section in the app. From there, you can start engaging in discussions and asking questions.

What can I do in the community forum?

In the community forum, you can participate in discussions on various topics related to education, ask questions to get help from other users, share your experiences and insights, and connect with like-minded individuals who are also using Edream.

Are there any guidelines for using the community forum?

Yes, we have guidelines in place to ensure a positive and respectful environment for all users. We encourage users to be polite, avoid spamming or self-promotion, and refrain from sharing any inappropriate or offensive content. Violation of these guidelines may result in the suspension or termination of your account.

Can I report inappropriate content or behavior in the community forum?

Absolutely! We take the safety and well-being of our users seriously. If you come across any inappropriate content or behavior in the community forum, please report it to our support team. We will investigate the issue and take appropriate action.

Can I interact with the Edream team in the community forum?

Yes, our team actively participates in the community forum to provide support, answer questions, and gather feedback from users. You can interact with us and other members of the Edream team in the discussions and threads.
